

Stand: August 2020

TERMS OF USE FOR THE TEMPORARY PROVISION OF EQUIPMENT FOR THE PURPOSE OF PARTICIPATING IN AN ONLINE COURSE

The shipment of equipment for participation in an online course is only available to customers in Germany, Switzerland and selected European countries.

1. You receive from us medical devices for which certain requirements apply, these Products may only be used after instruction and under no circumstances outside of the internship as part of the online course.
2. The above-mentioned products with the above mentioned serial number are the property of BEE Medic GmbH and must be returned to us within one week after the online course. Please refer to the delivery note for the length of this period. Please note that course equipment can generally not be purchased. Should a deposit be charged on the provision (see point 3), this will be refunded after receipt and examination of the products.
3. We charge a deposit of 500.00 CHF respectively 500,00 EUR for the provision of the products mentioned above.
4. In order to make the device available, the following complete information of the Customers are required: name, address and bank details. If a deposit fee is charged, it will be charged back to the account specified by the customer. The deposit fee must be received on our account before we ship the equipment.
5. If we do not receive the device back in time after the expiry of the specified period, we reserve the right to charge a rental fee of 500.00 CHF / 500.00 EUR plus VAT per device per month or part thereof for the time exceeding this period.
6. The device must not be labeled and/or pasted and must be cleaned after use and to return it to us with all accessories. You will find the return address on the delivery note. No software may be installed on computers!
7. If a device is returned defective, with missing accessories and/or uncleaned, we will charge the reduction in value, the replacement of the missing or defective parts and/or cleaning, in case of serious damage or loss we will also charge the full price of the device
8. For the return within Switzerland to Swiss BEE Medic GmbH and within Germany to Bee Medic GmbH Deutschland please use the attached return label. We ask for your understanding that you have to pay the shipping costs for returns from abroad. Please always choose a shipping method with a tracking number for the return shipment
9. Please make sure that you send back to us exactly the device we send you for use. You will find the serial number on the delivery note and also on this information sheet. If you return a unit with a different serial number, we will charge the additional costs for postage and packaging for the subsequent replacement.
10. We reserve the right to charge the costs for postage and packaging for the shipping costs.
11. The user is responsible for stored data on the computer during the period of use. Before returning the device, make sure that you remove all data in such a way that they cannot be restored (not applicable if no PC/laptop is sent).